Friends,

I am writing this letter to bring to your kind notice that Tagore Society for Rural Development is requesting you to please support by making contribution towards the cyclone Yash affected areas of Sundarbans in this Covid Pandemic situation. The people of Gosaba Island and Sagar Island are living in vulnerable condition, many of them are under open sky – no food, no drinking water, no medicine and no shelter. We are in need of the supports to provide cyclone victims with food, water, clothes, medical help and shelter in this challenging time. Please send your support to us for this endangered community. If you send monetary support, send directly to our bank account as follows:

For Indian donation please donate in favour of the following:
